

Appendix B – WPWAI Code of Conduct

Water Polo Australia (WPA) and Water Polo Western Australia (WPWAI) are committed to the requirements for the protection of the health, safety and wellbeing of all our members. To achieve that, we have a Member Protection Policy, the goal of which is to provide a safe and comfortable environment so that all members can compete and enjoy our great sport in a harassment free environment.

WPA's Member Protection Policy is freely available via both the WPWAI and WPA websites, or on request from WPWAI offices. We require all WPWAI members to abide by its guidelines and processes. WPWAI Website is: <http://www.waterpolowa.asn.au>

A key element of the Member Protection Policy is the Codes of Conduct that apply to all of us, in the varying roles we take.

It is the expectation of WPWAI that all persons associated with our sport abide by the Codes of Conduct detailed below. Serious non-compliance with these guidelines will be referred to WPWAI for formal investigation and resolution under the Member Protection Policy processes.

Player / Athlete Code of Conduct

- Play by the rules
- Never argue with an official. If you disagree, have your captain, coach or manager approach the official after the competition
- Control your temper. Verbal abuse of officials and sledging other players, deliberately distracting or provoking an opponent are not acceptable or permitted behaviors in any sport.
- Work equally hard for yourself and / or your team. Your team's performance will benefit so will you
- Be a good sport. Applaud all good plays whether they are made by your team or the
- Treat all participants in your sport as you like to be treated. Do not bully or take unfair advantage of another competitor.
- Cooperate with your coach, team matters and opponents. Without them there would be no competition.
