

DAVID LIDDLE

David Liddle has been involved in Water Polo in Western Australia since 1977. He started with Flotsam, and was a committee member of that club when they joined with Rangers to form CBWPC in 1979.

David has been a player, junior coach, and Office bearer for the club over the years since, and currently has 2 daughters playing Senior Water Polo.

He is currently Secretary for UWA CBWPC, is a Club sponsor and plays Master's Water Polo.

He has degrees in Engineering and Business Administration and has retired from full time work as a Control Systems Engineer. He owns an Optometry Practice in partnership with his wife in East Victoria Park.

His interest in being on the board is to participate in the administration of Water Polo, and in the development of the sport to the benefit of all Clubs and especially the Players.
